Coats, Coats, Coats

It's getting that time of year where students are needing their coats. We have coats of all kinds, blue ones, red ones, grey ones, multi colored ones. If your student is missing their coat and you can't find it, please stop by to look in our cabinet right by the front door.

Federal Aid Impact Forms

Recently we sent home a Federal Aid Impact Form, it is very important that we get this form back. If you have misplaced the first one, another one should be coming home in your student's backpack. We receive money from the Federal Government based off the information given on this form.

Small Items Lost and Found

Hello Parents,

We have a lost and found of small items here in the Office with things like keys, glasses and jewelry. All this stuff has been left over from years in the past. Since I have not had anything from this year in the lost and found drawers in the office, I will no longer be keeping those items after November 11th. If you have things missing, please stop by and take a look.
